It's time to get a substitute, but how?

Follow the steps below to get your birth certificate. Go to the portal for the US government at vital documents in the middle of the right side of the page. Certificates of birth, marriage and death. Where to write to the Vital Records page is displayed. Click on the name of the state where you were born. The CDC (Centers for Control of Diseases and Prevention) is displayed for your state. The cost of replacement of birth certificate, its address when you were born and other observations are displayed. When requesting your birth certificate, remember that some states can archive birth certificates in various physical locations due to the age of records. So make sure you write to the correct address. Follow the instructions on the state's website on the purchase of substitution birth certificates [source: disease control and prevention control centers] .remember that the process of obtaining that of a birth certificate of substitution varies from state to state. In some areas, you should write to the state government to request your birth certificate and include a check or payment order. In other states, you can sign up online and pay with criterion card. However, due to the £ legislaÂ§Â You may be requested for the identity test. This can involve sending photocopies of identification cards, tax declarations, bank statements and other forms of ID (source: North Saúde Department of Saúde). Birth certificates are often needed to get licenses, receiving government benefits and registering for school. While many people turn to the internet to ask for additional or or Birth certificates, order your birth certificate in the mail can save a lot of money and it is easy, since you know who to contact and what information you need to provide. Contact the Department of Vital Records of the State and / or county in which you were born. They will be able to send you a copy of the necessary form to officially request a copy of your birth certificate. The sending of this form is usually free and if you have access to the Internet, these forms can be printed at home. Fill in the Birth Certificate Request form. This form will ask for details about your birth, including the names of your parents (the maiden name of the mother is needed). Most states also require someone who is asking for their birth certificate to sign documents by verifying that he has authority to get birth certificate on issue. Only or your authorized representatives (including lawyers and parents often) can legally order a copy of their birth certificate. Get certified funds to send messages for processing and correspondence fees. Most local governments will not accept money, personal checks or even bito / criterion cards. Money orders and box checks are often the unique forms of payment accepted. Banks provide accounts with cash checks or pay or no payment orders. Postal money orders require small rates. Some state governments will accept bito or criterion cards by phone. If bito or credited cards are accepted, they usually must be on your behalf. Check all forms to avoid delays. The failure to include a Addition of Value Correspondence for the requested birth certificate can result in extreme delays. Subscribe and start all forms to avoid getting forms sent back to you with instructions for corrections. Send all forms and fees to the appropriate government vital records department. Allow three to five days before calling to check the receipt and ask when you can expect your birth certificate in the mail. You usually have to wait from seven to 10 days ätible for receipt. receipt.
